

Brian Hades – Publisher of the Okal Rel Saga and Okal Rel Legacies Series

Brian Hades is the owner of Hades Publications, Inc. - Canada's largest publisher of Science Fiction and Fantasy books.

He got behind the Okal Rel Saga back in 1999 when author Alison Sinclair introduced him to Lynda Williams. Since then, he has become the saga's best friend ever, by fulfilling Lynda's dream of seeing the stories in print, in the real world.

Hades' books have been nominated for both Canadian and US literary awards such as the Sunburst Award, the Aurora Award, the ForeWord Magazine Award and the Ben Franklin Award.

Hades is the first Canadian Science Fiction and Fantasy genre publisher to have sold publishing rights to The Science Fiction Book Club of New York. Other co-publishing and licensing deals include the release of various USA hardback and paperback editions, the translation and publication of French editions, the optioning of television/movie production rights and the co-production of an animated short movie based on the poems in i-ROBOT Poetry by Jason Christie.

Online information can be found at www.edgewebsite.com - it is always in development, watch for changes and updates weekly.

EDGE and Tesseract are imprints of Hades Publications, Inc.

EDGE Science Fiction and Fantasy Publishing / Tesseract Books

NEW Check out our Great new Spring Releases:
Petrified World, Of Wind and Sand, Far Arena! NEW

Okal Rel Universe Background Bio – Hades

Lynda Williams with Brian Hades at a Science Fiction con in 2006.

Brian Hades pictured with some Okal Rel Universe publications.